Vibe Stim

Review by Shi vas Qwib-Qwib

Looking for a new toy is tough. Sometimes it can be intimidating or even embarrassing. But I'm here to help you. Introducing the VibeStim 2.0, they put a number afterwards, so you know it's great.

VibeStim 2.0's features are fantastic! It's a tiny install, you can connect it to the VibeStim app along with other VibeStim products and it even comes with attachments for specific things you'd like it to do. It costs 153 credits, I was provided one for free in exchange for an honest review from Blushing Vibes.

I consider myself a fan of the VibeStim family, heck, I'm a fan of all toys I can successfully use. But man, this one, this one feels perfect for me.

It's the best stimulator I can find, but some stims might not work for you; that's okay. I'm not a fan of nerve stimulators that have a million different settings, are all fancy and have the newest advancements in nerve stimulator technology -- but this one is different.

There are a few new enhancements (one could say) about the VibeStim 2.0 from its sister the VibeStim 1.5 (which you can read my review here). Ten speeds, five patterns, an attachment for the Quarians who have genitals that protrude, you can even add two new patterns that you can customize with their application.

It's even easier and more streamlined to use than before! Previously, the 1.5 had all these different buttons, the new 2.0 has three: a button to go higher, a button for a pattern, and a button to go lower. You'd think it'd have been simple enough, but at least they made up for it.

It has technology built-in that when you want it to stop, it'll stop; especially for those moments where you're overstimulated. That's one thing a lot of people told me they didn't like about the 1.0 and the 1.5. It's also quieter, has a greater variation in its intensity and patterns, easy to install and uninstall. It is honestly worth every cred.

Blushing Vibes even offers a year-long warranty, if you're not happy with it, you can get a refund or an exchange, no questions asked. Many have said they love it, which is great to hear.

I have to admit, I would've liked a bit of variation to the patterns, but that could be me.I've been waiting my entire life for some of these features, and I am so happy to have them; it hits all my spots ;). Toys that are good for you are sometimes hard to come by, but at least with the VibeStim 2.0, you know you're in safe hands.

If I've convinced you enough to get one, you can find it here at my affiliate code, with 10% off if you use the words QToys.

Vetra Nyx

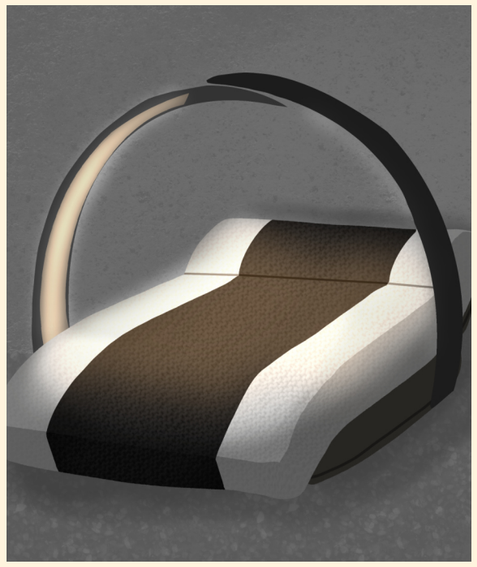
Advice from Andromeda's Sexiest Smuggler

By Keri T'Vessa

Vetra Nyx has made a name for herself as the woman that can get what you need, and apparently, what a lot of people need are ways to spice up their sex lives on the frontier. Thankfully, being a member of the Pathfinder's team gives this titillating turian access to just that.

Here are 3 secrets of Andromeda that can make the next time the BEST time!

1. Angaran Ion Beds



While the Angara use these handy devises for their healing properties, it has been discovered that these beds can send your nervous system into overdrive, making your whole body seem like an exogenous zone.*

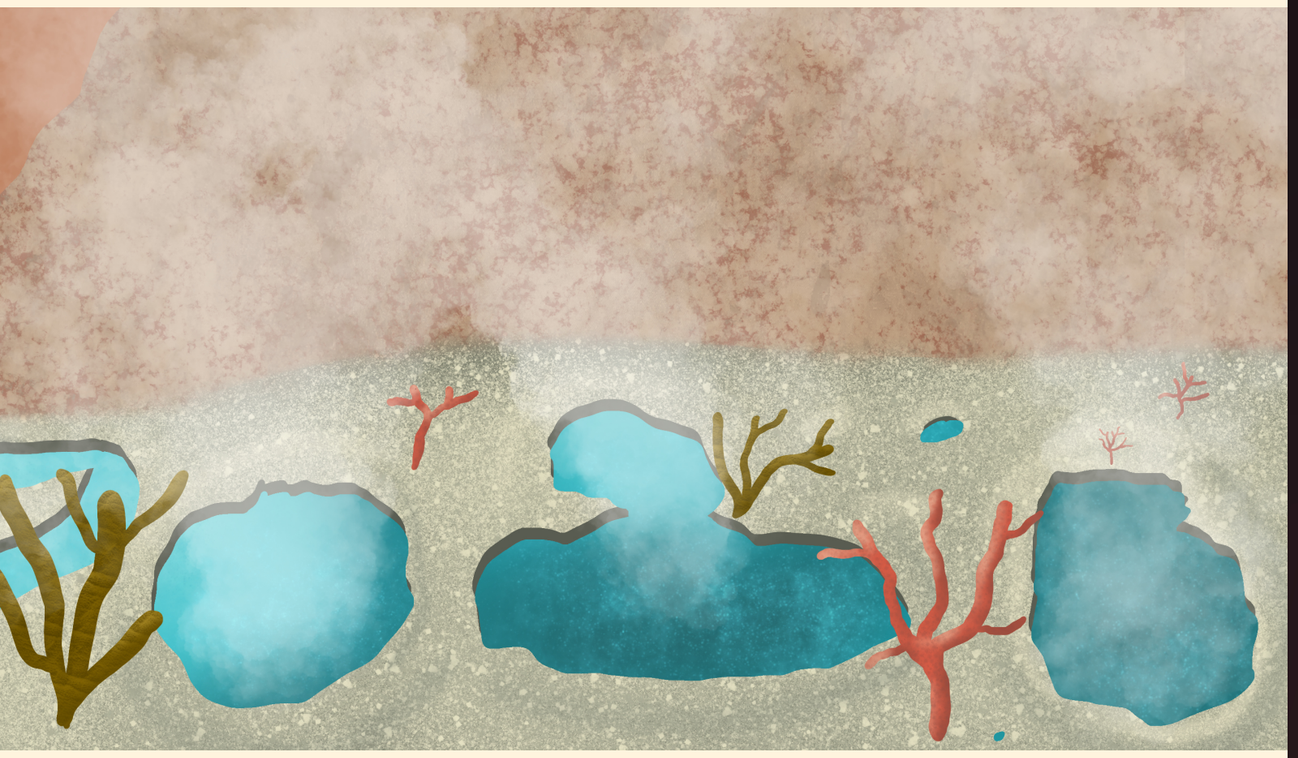
*Results may vary for Krogan due to redundant nervous system.

2. Roots, Shrooms, & Jerky

Hey fellas, worried you'll last as long as a Salarian mood swing? While nobody thought to bring enough blue pills for everyone, Andromeda has a cornucopia of edible enhancements, including a root from Aya and a mushroom from Havarl*, but the most notable is the jerky made from Krogan testicles.

Is it as gross as it sounds? Sure, but with effects of the Genophage lessened and Krogan populations on the rise, Krogan men aren't sure what to do with all that extra "baggage." Chew on a piece before intimacy, though, and you'll feel like a Krogan yourself, just don't expect it to be teriyaki flavor.

*Warning: Havarl Mushroom may cause glowing in some men, if glowing persists, see your doctor.



3. Kadara Salt Baths

While Kadara might be a hub for scum and villainy now, it used to be almost entirely under water, and while the water may have evaporated, the salt deposits have remained.

To most species, salt is an essential ingredient in cooking, but to a Turian, like Vetra, it serves a whole other purpose. Other species aren't accustomed to their hard exoskeleton, but by rubbing a block of salt over your plates, they'll be as soft as suede sandpaper, something your squishy paramour will appreciate.

Welcome to the eighth entry of "The Wild Wild World of Sexual Pleasures"

As usual, you're joined by me, Rasi, as I review the new hot dungeon on Omega. Called 'La Cœur' -- or 'The Heart' if you don't have your translator enabled.

In today's edition, I'll be going over the dress code, etiquette, the mood of the club and the entertainment, and what to expect at the end of your night. So come along, and follow me as we explore La Cœur!

La Cœur is a medium-sized dungeon located in the Tuhi District, it's not as obvious due to its nature. It's a place where you can let your hair down and do anything (that isn't against one of the rules).

Essentially, you come here and line up, there are some forms to sign if you're a newbie (like me). You'll get scanned over for ID from your Omni-tool. After you've been accepted in, you're asked to give them a donation of some credits. I gave 25 creds but you can give more or less if you'd like. It's just to keep up maintenance with the place and to pay the mercs to make sure nothing bad happens here. Owning a BDSM dungeon isn't cheap yo.

I've heard whispers of a big donor, though sadly, I couldn't get any information.

We are given the general rules, which can be easily found on the extranet; but they'll remind you of the rules, in case you forget. They're simple: don't stand too close to those performing, don't talk loudly (there is music being played but like... don't talk louder than the music), don't expel fluids (though if you really need some relief, find a restroom). The main points are simple - ask before you touch, don't be a creep, and no means no.

You can also ask for a tour of the place unless you're with someone who already knows about it, or you're like me and you like to explore.
On the inside of La Cœur, there's dark curtains, brick walls, purple, pink and blue ambient lighting - it's amazing!

Other features include a St Andrews Cross, some benches, dancing cages, and a rope suspension bar. Okay, you're thinking "slow your roll, Rasi, you haven't even told us about the dress code!". Well, I can comfortably tell you that the dress code is mostly black, but there is a changing room near where you can drop off your things. You can also wear kink related gear that you can put on in the changing room.

You are given a code when you drop your bags off. There's a locker rental situation too, so you can speak to the cloakroom attendants if you trust that more. Of course, you can keep your bags with you, but it's your responsibility to keep it safe.
Inside, there's a wide variety of activities and pleasures.

There is no sexual intercourse at all, but you can practice BDSM safely here if where you live currently doesn't offer safety. There are different rooms for different activities. The main floor has the previously mentioned St Andrews Cross, dancing cage, rope suspension bar, and benches with eager guests playing on. You can find a small medical room that's saved for, you know, "playing doctor". The Shibari equipment is in the main room, as that's where you'd find all the ropes and suspension gear.

Impact play can be found in the main room too. One thing I appreciated is in each room, there's a little section for safe sex, so if you're worried about cross-contamination between species, you should be safe -- as well as toy cleaners and leather cleaners.

You can find several different species here. Human and Asari will be the most popular, but you can find Turian, Quarian, Hanar, Elcor, even a few Volus' too.

In a medium-sized room, there's a little social area/aftercare room. So if you're a bit tired from all the play you can come together (heh) to talk and chill. There's food for everyone and a sink for drinks or refreshments because sometimes playing can take it out of you. It's a social gathering along with a general play!

I've had a few questions come in when I announced where I was going.

Some of you asked if there was alcohol and if it was a club like Afterlife. I can attest that there is no alcohol at La Cœur, and actually, they advise against it due to a difference in your inhibitions. You won't get checked for your blood alcohol level, but if you cause a ruckus you'll be kicked out. It's not a club, there's music and the dancing cage, but it's not like Afterlife at all.

One person asked me if sexual acts are allowed and where. As mentioned, if you can expel fluids, they advise you not to do any sexual acts. But if you cannot expel fluids, orgasm or orgasm-like experiences are okay. There are also private rooms, semi-private and open spaces. Private rooms are closed off with no windows, these are used by couples who might not have a voyeur bone in their body and don't have anywhere to safely engage in kink. Semi-private rooms have closed doors, but windows are open if you want a demonstration into someone's kink

Open rooms are different from the main room. Sometimes you want to do stuff and don't want everyone to see and that's totally okay, and La Cœur offers that for you. Another reader asked if there were water features, like showers, or spas/pools, and I'm afraid not. Like I mentioned before, there is somewhere to drink water and relax, but that's it.

How to wrap up the night? So, you're tired from watching people or maybe doing some activities yourself. Well, you can grab your bag by telling them your number on your Omni-tool, or unlocking the locker and change your clothes if you have to and just leave. Wrapping up your night is pretty easy to do, and it's so simple, even a pyjak can do it.

There are some small fast-food joints around if you want to wrap up your night with food. Pizza places like The Belle Pepper Pizzeria or The Nomad which have doughnuts or ice cream. They both even offer dextro and levo based food.

There's a fantastic dumpling place around the corner called The Secret Ingredient owned by a Human-Hanar couple which is kind of cute. You can also get a shuttle to anywhere you need to, and hell -- if you're not done with your time you can go to Afterlife and party on!

La Cœur has a fantastic vibe, and I'm really happy about everything there. Overall, I'd say go if you want to explore kinky stuff but maybe go with a friend just in case.

I hope you enjoyed your time with me at La Cœur, and join me next time when I go to a new toy shop that's opened up on the Citadel! Maybe add a few final lines giving the place a rating, or overall level of satisfaction?

Angaran Love Stories

I had never met an Angaran before, but I really enjoyed the way they show their love and appreciation if you know what I mean ;). They look so beautiful, almost like Varren but not riddled with disease and are living preys…okay now that I say that out loud it does sound kind of rude.

ANYWAYS, if you're wondering what the Angaran people are like, and don't want to commit time and effort to know one, then this is the type of video for you. Really easy to use, payment was easy and simple, and hey, if you like it so much then maybe you can find an Angaran of your own. But you best be thanking your mate Rex for it.

Step Humans Caught in the Act!!!

So… one of my human friends told me about how there is a whole industry on Earth where they have (dirty) vids about people who aren't related but share parental figures. I decided to check one out because he seems to rave about this particular one, but I have to admit, it's kind of … weird, but also hot.

I'm not going to the Afterlife, am I? And I'm not even referencing the club. But the other human was stuck in a seat, it didn't seem like they were actually stuck, and then well, they did it. And it was hot, but humans are weird. But they're also very hot. I need a moment to think, alone, in a dark room.

Vorcha Secrets

I am speechless. Okay admittedly, I chose this one on a dare, and I was going to laugh about it with my friends and stuff like that. But uhh–, it's actually really interesting. I mean, I didn't get turned on about it (which kind of sucks). But man, Vorcha sure are beings, aren't they? I didn't expect a lot from this, so the director (if they weren't a Vorcha) has some massive balls.

Ok, I lied, it was kind of sexy. What, I like guttural voices. Like very deep voices. Okay, that's not important. You'll find like a bunch of Vorcha in this video so if Vorcha is your forte then you're in luck, my friend. I'm actually surprised by what they included in this piece because I wasn't expecting a lot of it. But uhh yeah, it was good, good!

SLUTTY ASARI MATRIARCH IN SKYCAR IS ABOUT TO GET FUCKED

I have some friends who told me Matriarchs are MILFS. I'm not too sure what that stands for but it's something about mothers. Of course, this has no relevance to the video that I watched, but I just thought putting it out there others might know.

This is hot though, I really liked the bit where she was bent over backwards and there were some biotic powers used, especially with the uhh, dildo? I think it was a dildo. Very very hot. Maybe I have a thing for biotic powers during sex, maybe I should unpack this. But it was just, sexy. Keep it up, ladies!

THICCCCC Krogan dances at Chora's Den, Afterlife and Purgatory!!!

It was absolutely mesmerising to see what she could do. I could watch for days and hours. But damn is she so sexy when she would just do that one dance move at 3:28, it felt like she was staring into my soul and telling me where to meet her. Of course, that's kind of silly, you know, why would you go and meet some woman who makes sexy dancing videos. But you could easily see yourself dance with her. It almost feels kind of like… it's illegal, to be that damn sexy. What can I say, I love bigger girls, no matter the species. I'm always going to be thinkin' 'bout her… a girl can dream.

QUARIANS UNSUITED

Let me tell you a story. I have a friend, let me say she's related in some way to this video. And I really like her, I think she's pretty, she's beautiful, even though I've never seen her face but I imagine one day I will if I ever get close to her, like the girls in this video. But anyway, she keeps dating non-dextro people, and I keep telling her maybe she should try and look towards people who are like her, you know, people like me. But she keeps ignoring my comments, almost like she's pulling me along. I don't know, but it hurts you know?

I think she's just trying to lead me on, see how much I want it, but I want it, I want it bad. I just don't know what I'm doing wrong with her? It feels like no matter what I say to–Cut off due to hitting the word count.

Drell Daddies

You know how sometimes, late at night, you're feeling a bit horny, so you decide to troll through all the dating apps on the omnitool, and you kind of get sick of all of them. But man… Drell Daddies sure is something different. And no, they aren't paying me to give this review!

Some of them take my eyes, and I am just in lust. Vids and pics do justice, but when you're actually talking to one, I just, so much gush. Whether that's from my heart or other places. Daddies are here to stay!

The app is easy to navigate once you get the hang of things. I see a few double-ups, maybe it's a glitch in the system. Or I see famous Drells who probably aren't on the app. I mean, would Thane Krios even be here? Who knows.

Talk to hot geth online, now!

Ads aren't usually my forte in how I get into things. But I was trying to find stuff for geth (yeah weird, whatever, I'll save your snide remarks for later) and saw this while searching and thought I'd give it a crack. Essentially it's just a place to chat up sentient beings like the geth or other AI like creatures. Takes the whole 'sex-bot' to a whole other stream.

Some are cam models, at least the ones with bodies. Though I really liked talking with them and having them tell me what to do. It's hot having some computer boss you around instead. Some of them got really naked, not physically, but mentally. If you take some red sands while talking, you'd probably have good convos.
